

BRONWYN KUSS

Bronwyn Kuss misses a time when hobbies were hobbies – things you did for the love of it and not as a side hustle. So, she set out to write a show that celebrates passion without profit. /// Allow It is a love letter to unprofitable and unproductive pursuits. Though she would still really like to make millions off comedy.

It's been a huge couple of years for Bronwyn. Her 2022 debut solo show won the Melbourne Comedy Festival's Director's Choice Award and saw her nominated for Best Newcomer. In 2024 she won the Festival's Pinder Prize and with that headed to Edinburgh where she wowed the crowds with her signature delivery.

A writer and comedian who specialises in giving extremely dry recounts of everyday experiences to astonishing comedic effect, Bronwyn has supported the likes of Hannah Gadsby, Nish Kumar, Mel Buttle and has performed on the Melbourne Comedy Festival Gala.

Incredibly likeable and wonderfully witty, Bronwyn Kuss exudes the seasoned finesse of a veteran comedian, effortlessly turning a roomful of people into a cascade of laughter.

Directed by Maggie Looke.

“Sharply witty.” ★★★★★ Chortle, 2024